

Religions and Peacebuilding in the Third Millennium, Capacities and Challenges

18 and 19 January 2023

Suggested topics for the papers

- Religions' approach to issues such as cultural diversity, ethics, mysticism, tolerance, etc. to achieve a global peace
- Religions' approach to the categories of identity, gender, ethnicity, religious sects, etc. with the aim of peace-building
- The place of interfaith dialogue in the process of achieving global peace in the third millennium
- The role of religions in reducing conflict and violence at the national, regional, and international levels
- Religions' approach to discrimination, tyrannies, colonialism and backwardness in today's world
- Religions' peaceful solutions on issues such as human rights, environment, terrorism, new media, family and social crises, and individual crises (loneliness, fear, suicide, etc.)
- Ways to teach public peace based on the religious teachings

Scientific Secretary: Ayatollah Dr Mostafa Mohaghegh Damad

Deadline for submission of abstracts: 21 July 2022 (up to 400 words)

Deadline for submission of full papers: 21 November 2022 (up to 6000 words)

Languages of the conference: Farsi and English

The Conference will be held both online and in-person

Guide for writing abstracts and full papers: ipsan.ir/conf1401

Secretariat's Email Address : peace.conf2023@gmail.com

